

BIG CHARITY BALL
IN CAMDEN TONIGHTFete for Cooper Hospital Promises to Be an Elaborate
Social Affair

The Women's Auxiliary of Cooper Hospital, Camden, will direct a charity ball in the Third Regiment Armory, Haddon avenue and Mickle street, tonight, to raise funds that will aid in the maintenance of the children's ward at the hospital.

Nearly everybody in "Who's Who" of Camden and other South Jersey points are expected to be in attendance.

The auditorium at the armory is being transformed into a scene of enchanting beauty under the direction of skilled decorators. The plans show that the midwinter season will have the predominant chromatic scheme.

There will be forty-three boxes, all of which have been engaged by the leading men and women of the city and county. It promises to be a virtual gathering of the social elite of South Jersey.

Members of Committee

Mrs. Harvey N. Schelker is chairman of the general committee in charge of the ball, and Mrs. Walter T. Staats, vice chairman. Other committee members are:

SOVIETS RELEASE U. S. GIRL

Was Held in Russia as Spy and Attempt to Bribe

Baltimore, Jan. 21.—(By A. F.)—Mrs. Marguerite E. Harrison, of Baltimore, newspaper correspondent imprisoned as a spy by the Bolsheviks at Moscow, has been released, according to a letter received yesterday by Dr. Hugh H. Young, from the secretary of Lord Beaverbrook, owner of the Daily Express, of London.

Assurances that Mrs. Harrison had been released were sent Lord Beaverbrook by M. Krasin, former Bolshevik minister of trade to England, who has returned to Russia.

Mrs. Harrison entered Russia about eleven months ago. Soon after reaching Moscow she was imprisoned for a while, but was released and for a time was reported as being in high favor with the Bolsheviks.

Her efforts to leave the country, however, were frustrated and she was again arrested on October 24 and imprisoned on a charge of having tried to bribe her way out of Russia. Later an official declaration charged her with being a spy for the American State Department.

WOULD EDUCATE INDIANS

Cornell Teacher Says Industrial Training Is Needed

Vocational education of the American Indian in schools and colleges was urged by Dr. E. A. Bates, professor of sociology at Cornell University, the principal speaker today at the conference of Friends of the Indian, at 20 South Twelfth street.

"Industrial education is the crying need of the Indian," said Dr. Bates, "a slow and gradual process of training that will lift him from the stone age condition in which he now is to a state more useful to society."

If his mentality were developed it would nearly be equal to that of the Caucasian," continued the speaker, "but this cannot be accomplished in a day; his education must start at the very beginning."

Escapes Injury as Autos Crash.

S. Steinberg, a paperhanger, of 423 West Norris street, while going west on Montgomery avenue in his automobile, crashed into a truck belonging to the L. P. White Co., wholesale jewelers, Ninth and Sansom streets, coming south on Franklin street. The truck was overturned and pedestrians thronged about the cars, believing J. Kay, 724 West Norris street, driver of the truck, to be seriously injured. With the aid of four men, Kay was extricated from the wreckage, little the worse for wear. Both cars were badly damaged.

Deaths of a Day

HENRY CLAY BATON

Retired Mint Assayer and Former Jeweler Dies in 87th Year

Henry Clay Baton, for thirty years an assayer in the U. S. mint here, died yesterday at his home, 5112 Newhall street, Germantown. He was eighty-seven years old. He was born in Philadelphia, and in his earlier life was a manufacturing jeweler. Later he entered the service of the mint, from which he retired about ten years ago.

At the time of his death Mr. Baton was the oldest living high priest of Jerusalem Chapter 293, F. and A. M., and a member of Melita Lodge, F. and A. M. He is survived by Mrs. Baton, two sons, Henry E. Baton, a general contractor of this city, and George S. Baton, a mining engineer of Pittsburgh, and six daughters.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from the home. Interment will be in West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

William B. Reynolds

William B. Reynolds, well known South Camden ice dealer, died suddenly yesterday in the bathroom of his home, 1903 South Fourth street. Heart disease was the cause of death. He was fifty-two years old and is survived by his wife and four children.

Frank R. Charlton

Gas poisoning he suffered in the battle of St. Mihiel resulted in the death yesterday of Frank R. Charlton, thirty-six years old, of 2110 Lombard street. He was a member of the Philadelphia police department for eight years, and for the greater part of that time was stationed at Thirteenth and Walnut streets, on traffic duty. He enlisted in the army in 1917 and was assigned to the 103d Military Police. He is survived by a wife and two children.

John McGrory

The funeral of John McGrory, who died Wednesday in his home, 3020 North Sydenham street, will take place tomorrow afternoon at St. Simon's Protestant Episcopal Church, Ninth street and Lehigh avenue.

Mr. McGrory for twenty years was a clerk in the bureau of vital statistics. He was fifty-eight years old. He was a Mason and a vestryman of St. Simon's Church. He is survived by his wife and three sons, John, James and George. Interment will be in Cheltenham Hill Cemetery.

Chinese Start Deportation Trip
Forty-two Chinese, ordered deported, left Gloucester immigration station in automobiles this morning and caught the 11 o'clock train from Camden for New York. Each man carried a box of lunch. They will spend the night at Ellis Island and then join a number of other deportees on a train for New Orleans, where undesirable men from other cities converge for shipment back to China.

FIAT

Turin, Italy

"EUROPE'S LEADING CAR"

We have just received the latest Fiat Post War models from Turin, Italy. They are the small models, generally known as the "Baby Fiat"—really remarkable cars, yielding 26 to 30 miles on a gallon. The cylinder box is smaller than on any American-made car.

With a 105" wheel base, it has a turning radius that permits the easiest handling in crowded downtown traffic. Yet the three body styles, Roadster, Touring and Sedan, are all exceptionally roomy and comfortable.

The Sedan, especially, is a marvel of compactness and completeness—seating five. The cars and bodies are built and finished in Italy. The price is easily within the scope of the average buyer.
